It takes people with all kinds of talents to make a community flourish! In this moving story, a king gains a new appreciation for the people of his kingdom after realizing he's made a mistake building a wall. With simple yet profound illustrations and pop-up and disappearing wall elements, children will learn how a community can be harmed when barriers are built and thrive when people come together.

Vicki Whiting, a former teacher, is founder and president of Kid Scoop, a weekly educational page aimed at children 5 to 10 years old. Syndicated in more than 250 newspapers from California to Bangkok, each Kid Scoop page provides information combined with colorful graphics and interactive games and puzzles. Kid Scoop News is a newspaper currently published in about 10 communities around the United States.

Jeff has loved to draw his whole life! As a kid, sometimes he was drawing when he should have been listening to the teacher in class. That's when he knew he should go to art school, where he would want to hear everything the teachers had to say! Jeff attended the Academy of Art University in San Francisco and now he loves teaching kids how to draw!

Kim Wilcox is a renowned chef and restaurant owner of the family-owned and operated It's All So Yummy restaurant in Knoxville, Tennessee. For more than 10 years, It's All So Yummy Café has been serving residents homemade soups, salads, sandwiches, ice cream, and their most famous specialty, savory and unique grilled cheese sandwiches. Beginning in 2009, Chef Kim Wilcox started her business with just one cake on the menu! It has since grown and evolved, and Kim has offered 120 varieties of grilled cheese sandwiches using locally acquired and seasonal ingredients. Kim's restaurant has been featured on the Food Network, the Cooking Channel, and local news programs. An inventive and out-of-the-box chef, Kim has also appeared in the best-selling title, The Ultimate SPAM® Cookbook, contributing two of her original recipes. To learn more about Kim and her restaurant, visit www.ItsAllSoYummy.com, or their Facebook (@itsallsoyummycafe) and Instagram (@itsallsoyummycafeowner) pages.
